

FCEDC Mid-Month Update

Latest Announcements

Join FCEDC in Celebrating Manufacturing Day on October 1, 2021

The annual Manufacturing Day focuses on the positive impacts of manufacturers at a local, national, and global level, and seeks to inspire future generations to pursue careers in the sector. Many companies in innovative manufacturing have chosen our area, from metalworking to auto parts, plastic molding to lighting and appliances, to electrical transmission components. These organizations have a profound impact on our local economy. Read more.

Cedar Creek Industrial Park is Now Fully Privately Owned. What Are the Implications?

Following the sale of Cedar Creek Industrial Park, growth and more jobs could be on their way to Cumberland County in the next three years. SkyREM LLC, a private investment company based in Philadelphia and New York, recently purchased land in the park to spread the company's footprint in Fayetteville an extra 360 acres. Read more.

Postal Service Delivers Big Tenant for Hope Mills Industrial Park

Liberty Point, a major new industrial park in the Hope Mills Interstate 95 corridor, has its first tenant. According to David Stroud of APG Advisors, a Raleigh-based commercial real estate firm, the Postal Service has leased all of the first spec building in the master-planned Liberty Point and will operate a distribution center out of the 178,200-square-foot distribution facility. Stroud said the building is still under construction, with delivery scheduled for September and the service move-in planned for October. The Postal Service currently operates a processing and distribution center in Fayetteville. Read more.
